CARGO INSURANCE CLAIMS AND LESSONS LEARNT FROM COVID-19

The recent Covid19 pandemic has changed certain things about how cargo insurance claims are handled. This webinar will focus on some lessons learnt on technical deviation under the contract of carriage, the potential loss of Hague-Visby (or similar) defences, and risk of a breach of Club cover.

This free 1-hour webinar is collaborative effort between the International Malaysian Society of Maritime Law (IMSML) and Persatuan Insurans Am Malaysia (PIAM) and should be of interest to shipowners, insurers, insurance brokers, bankers, lawyers and other interested commercial parties.

Tan Hui Tsing
Director
Gurbani & Co LLC

Hui Tsing graduated from Bristol University in 1994 (LLB Hons) and obtained her Masters in Maritime Law from the University of Southampton in 2004.

Hui Tsing was called to the Bar of England and Wales (Middle Temple) in 1995, and was admitted as an Advocate and Solicitor of the Supreme Court, Singapore in 1997. Hui Tsing's shipping practice encompasses both contentious and non-contentious areas in maritime law. Hui Tsing's clients include shipowners, charterers, P&I Clubs, marine underwriters and recovery agents. Equally comfortable in a S&P transaction or as counsel in Court, Hui Tsing provides a complete and comprehensive legal solution for shipping businesses.
